New Quarters For Rockville Library

Rockville, Aug. 24—The Rockville Public Library, which had occupied a little frame structure on the grounds of Richard Montgomery High School here for many years, is now functioning in spacious new quarters in the old Rockville Academy Building.

Books needing reconditioning have virtually all been reconditioned and the library now has approximately 6,000 volumes in excellent shape. Additions are being made from time to time and the association is just now interested in increasing the number of children's books, for which the Rockville Rotary Club recently contributed a substantial sum.

Miss Miriam Pasma is the librarian. She is assisted at times by Mrs. Robert E. L. Smith and Mrs. Theodore S. Mason. The library association is headed by Mrs. Frank D. Leizear.
